

Philosophy on the Farm

www.philosophyonthefarm.com

When: Saturday, September 20, 2014

Where: Braile Home Ranch:

3450 Velma Drive, Powder Springs, GA 30127 (33°54'36.36" - 84°39'16.41")

The Event: Philosophy on the Farm combines an evening of discovery on the innate world of animals with discovery and enrichment of the chiropractic philosophy. Come see a wide variety of animals including horses, chickens, ducks, rabbits, turtles and variety of tortoises including rare Galapagos tortoises and more. Learn from some of the most successful DCs in chiropractic. There is no charge for this event; however, donations will be accepted to defray costs.

Schedule:

- 6 PM Tours of animals with feeding demonstrations and possibly animal adjusting
- 7:30 PM till 11 PM ? for Philosophy

Speakers:

- Dr. TBA - Coming Soon
- Dr. DD Humber – Legend in Chiropractic - DE host, former ICA president

What to bring: (Leave nothing behind when you go)

- Bring your own folding chairs, tables, picnic items and food
- Appropriate footwear recommended
- Bug repellent recommended
- DO NOT BRING GLASS CONTAINERS

Animals:

- Horses: Tours and demonstrations will begin at 6 PM. Please do not feed horses unless accompanied by a member of Braile family. Horses can overeat and will get sick. Please visit the website for details on which animals you can feed and what.
- Galapagos Tortoises: Carrots, bananas, or watermelon can be brought to feed these animals.

Weather:

Weather could be an issue. We do not have a backup plan but bad weather could postpone the event. Keep checking www.philosophyonthefarm.com for our posted updates.

CHILDREN WELCOME BUT MUST BE CLOSELY SUPERVISED AT ALL TIMES

